

UTORC Pilot and Feasibility Proposals Awarded in 2008-2009:

- 1. Project Title: Impact of a web-based wellness program on selected measure of wellness
PI: Betty Greer, Prof., Family & Consumer Sciences, UT Extension
Co-PI: Marsha Spence, Research Asst Prof., UT Nutrition
Co-PI: Aneisa McDonald, Coordinated School Health Specialist, Knox County Schools
Co-PI: Carolyn Perry-Burst, Knox County School Nutr. Facilitator, Knox County Schools
- 2. Project Title: *Impact of a planned environmental change on fruit and vegetable choices and consumption among kindergarteners
PI: Marsha Spence, Research Asst. Prof, UT Nutrition
Co-PI: Katherine Kavanagh-Prochaska, UT Nutrition
- 3. Project Title: Title of Proposal: Molecular and cellular targets of ATP10C, a putative phospholipid translocase, and its role in translocation and sequestration of glucose transporter
PI: Madhu Dhar, Res. Assoc. Prof, Large Animal Clinical Sciences, UT Vet Med.
Co-PI: John Biggerstaff, UT Center for Environmental Biotechnology
Co-PI: John Dunlap, UT Biology Division
- 4. Project Title: Effect of PUFA supplementation on markers of inflammation, stress, and appetite: a minipig model
PI: Cheryl Kojima, UT Animal Science
Co-PI: Brynn Voy (ORNL)
Co-PIs: Henry Kattesh, John Waller & Arnold Saxton, UT Animal Science
- 5. Project Title: The association of certain genotypes and obesity-related disorders in pre-pubertal Black youth
PI: Dawn Coe, UT Exercise, Sports and Leisure Studies
Co-PI: Bruce Alpert, Pediatric Cardiology, UTHSC, Memphis
Co-PI: George A. Burghen, Pediatric Endocrinology, UTHSC Memphis
Co-PI: Cheryl Kojima & Naima Moustaid-Moussa, UT Animal Science
Co-PI: Sarah Stender, General Pediatrics/Adolescent Medicine, UTHSC, Memphis
Co-PI: Dixie Thompson, UT Exercise Sports and Leisure Studies